1. This is a first Office action on the merits for application serial number 10/751249 filed 01/01/04. One claim is pending.

2. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: reference numeral 9 has been used to designate both the hex drive shaft and threaded rod on page 3. It appears that "9" should be changed to - - 12 - - after "drive shaft" on line 8.

Appropriate correction is required.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The limitation "the aforesaid nut" lacks antecedent basis in the claim.

The claim has more than one period. The claim(s) must be in one sentence form only. Note the format of the claims in the patent(s) cited.

As understood the threaded rod would not be able to slide up and down within the length of the hollow shaft as recited in the last two lines of the claim. As understood the threaded rod rotates causing the pin to move up and down which in turn forces the collar to move up and down.

The Claim is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential structural cooperative relationships of elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the necessary structural connections. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted structural cooperative relationships are: the relationship between the rod, pin and collar are incomplete.

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claim 1 as best understood is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 2 of U.S. Patent No. 6,543,464. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because each of the elements of the instant claim are claimed in the patent.

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

8. Claim 1 as best understood is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent 5,213,122 to Grady II.

Grady appears to provide each of the elements of the instant claim and function the same.

9. Claim 1 as best understood is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent 5,291,908 to Grady II.

Grady appears to provide each of the elements of the instant claim and function the same.

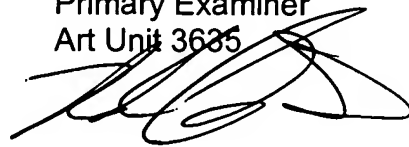

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
